Section B: True or False. (Total 30%, 3 marks for each question)

- When they first lived there, they did not worship the LORD; so he sent lions among them and they killed all of the people.----- ()
- They served the LORD, but they also worshipped their own gods in accordance with the customs of the nations from which they had been brought.----- ()
- To this day they persist in their former practices. They neither worship the LORD nor adhere to the rules and regulations, the laws and commands that the LORD gave the descendants of Jacob, whom he named Israel.----- ()
- When the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites, he commanded them: 'Do not worship any other gods or bow down to them, serve them or sacrifice to them.----- ()

- But the LORD, who brought you up out of Egypt with mighty power and outstretched arm, is the one you must worship. To him you shall bow down and to him offer sacrifices.----- ()
- Rather, worship the LORD your God; it is he who will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies.'----- ()
- Hezekiah trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel. There was no one like him among all the kings of Israel, either before him or after him.----- ()
- And the LORD was with him; he was successful in whatever he undertook. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him.----- ()
- So Hezekiah king of Judah sent this message to the king of Assyria at Lachish: 'I have done wrong. Withdraw from me, and I will pay whatever you demand of me.' The king of Assyria exacted from Hezekiah king of Judah thirty talents of silver and three hundred talents of gold.----- ()
- Listen! When he hears a certain sound, I will make him want to return to his own country, and there I will have him cut down with the sword.'----- ()

Section C: Match the pairs. (Total 20%, 2 marks for each question)

1. Hezekiah received the envoys and showed them all that was in his storehouses – the silver, the gold, the spices and the fine oil – his armoury and everything found among his treasures.	'LORD, the God of Israel, enthroned between the cherubim, you alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.
2. Moreover, Manasseh also shed so much innocent blood that he filled Jerusalem from end to end –	so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you alone, LORD, are God.'
3. 'Go back and tell Hezekiah, the ruler of my people, "This is what the LORD, the God of your father David, says:	But in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
4. the time will surely come when everything in your palace, and all that your predecessors have stored up until this day,	will take root below and bear fruit above.
5. 'This will be the sign for you, Hezekiah: 'This year you will eat what grows by itself, and the second year what springs from that.	I have heard your prayer and seen your tears; I will heal you. On the third day from now you will go up to the temple of the LORD.
6. I will not again make the feet of the Israelites wander from the land I gave their ancestors,	I will defend this city for my sake and for the sake of my servant David.'"
7. And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD:	There was nothing in his palace or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.
8. Once more a remnant of the kingdom of Judah	will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the LORD.
9. Now, LORD our God, deliver us from his hand,	if only they will be careful to do everything I commanded them and will keep the whole Law that my servant Moses gave them.'
10. I will add fifteen years to your life. And I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria.	besides the sin that he had caused Judah to commit, so that they did evil in the eyes of the LORD.
