Section B: True or False. (Total 20%, 2 marks for each question)

1. 'Meaningless! Meaningless!' says the Teacher. 'Utterly meaningless! Everything is a chasing after the wind.'----- ()
2. All streams flow into the sea, yet the sea is never full. To the place the streams come from, there they return again.----- ()

3. What has been will be again, what has been here will be done again; there is everything new under the sun.----- ()
4. What is crooked cannot be straightened; what is lacking cannot be counted.----- ()
5. For with much knowledge comes much sorrow; the more wisdom, the more grief.----- ()
6. Yet when I surveyed all that my hands had done and what I had toiled to achieve, everything was meaningless, a chasing after the wind; nothing was gained under the sun.----- ()
7. I saw that folly is better than wisdom, just as darkness is better than light.----- ()
8. So I loved life, because the work that is done under the sun was grievous to me. All of it is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.----- ()
9. For a person may labour with wisdom, knowledge and skill, and then they must leave all they own to another who has not toiled for it. This too is meaningless and a great misfortune.----- ()
10. To the person who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge and happiness, but to the sinner he gives the task of gathering and storing up wealth to hand it over to the one who pleases God. This too is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.----- ()

Section C: Match the pairs. (Total 20%, 2 marks for each question)

1. There is a time for everything,		yet no one can fathom what God has done from beginning to end.
2. He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the human heart;		– this is the gift of God.
3. That each of them may eat and drink, and find satisfaction in all their toil		for there will be a time for every activity, a time to judge every deed.’
4. Whatever is has already been, and what will be has been before;		But how can one keep warm alone?
5. I said to myself, ‘God will bring into judgment both the righteous and the wicked,		because they have a good return for their labour:
6. I saw the tears of the oppressed – and they have no comforter;		and a season for every activity under the heavens:
7. And I declared that the dead, who had already died,		And God will call the past to account.
8. Two are better than one,		are happier than the living, who are still alive.
9. Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm.		power was on the side of their oppressors – and they have no comforter.
10. Better a poor but wise youth than an old but foolish king		who no longer knows how to heed a warning.
